

What is a Conventional Loan?

A Conventional Loan is a loan that meets the loan guidelines as set forth by either Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac. These loans currently have a maximum of $417,000. Conventional loans can be used for purchase, refinance and cash out. In addition you can finance different property types and different occupancy types, although loan to value adjustments apply. Also, if the property is a condo, it must be FNMA approved and is 80% Max LTV. Townhomes are also 80% max LTV. Guidelines are consistently changing, so please consult one of our loan professionals.
